

Automotive Sector Skills

Blueprint projects underpinning an EU-wide long-term cooperation

24 March 2022 - 9:30-13:00 CET

AGENDA

09:30	Opening
09:35	Keynote Manuela Geleng, Director for Jobs and Skills, DG EMPL, European Commission
10:00	The future of the EU Automotive Sector – an independent overview of the automotive industrial landscape Michael Flickenschild, ECORYS
10:15	DRIVES, the automotive blueprint - an overview on the goals and key findings DRIVES results – joining stakeholders needs 1) Sectoral Skills Intelligence and Strategy – Christian Baio Strategic roadmap after sector intelligence; trends/skills/job roles 2) Addressing education mismatches – Damjan Ekert a. Set of Job roles and its skills b. The designed training courses; EQF levels covered; (WP3 Leaders team) - c. DRIVES Learning Platform - the tool for training courses in form of MOOC 3) Apprenticeship perspective – Mick Feloy Q&A
11:05	The future in practice: DRIVES EU-wide Framework Putting in practice modular training, micro-credentials and Individual Learning Accounts DRIVES roll-out – stakeholders’ initiatives - Stuttgart Region - Sabine Stütze - Ambassadors4Skills&Jobs - Isabel Soares Carneiro Q&A
12:00	DRIVES Legacy - Reflecting and Forecasting the future DRIVES recommendations - Henrique Burnay From and beyond DRIVES legacy - Jakub Stolfa Q&A
12:15	DRIVES Sustainability - The Pact for Skills and Automotive Skills Alliance DRIVES Steering Board - ACEA, CLEPA, ETRMA Concluding remarks by DRIVES SB Leader